4. Please be prepared to submit the original drawing, Adobe Illustrator or Photoshop file in the case your artwork is chosen.
5. Carefully read Terms & Qualifications below.
6. Questions? Contact sales@wisconsindi.org and use the subject line "Pin Contest."

PIN DESIGN TIPS

1. Please do not include the words "Destination Imagination," "DI," "Global Finals" or "GF19" in your design.
2. Your pin design doesn't need to be confined to a standard shape, and you may submit your design in any size. However, please note that when we produce the winning pins, we will scale your design so that the largest edge is no larger than two inches in length.
3. When you create something, aren't you proud of the time and hard work you put into making it? You've created something original and would most likely be upset if someone copied your work without your permission. That's where copyright law comes in. Copyright protects "original works of authorship" and spans a variety of areas ranging from movie characters to literary works to company logos. Please do not submit pin designs that include the likeness or emulation of any trademarked or copyrighted material including, but not limited to, parodies of copyrighted characters.
